WAIVER AND RELEASE In consideration of the acceptance of any application for the FossilFest Parade at the Kemmerer FossilFest on June 18, 2022 any participant or legal guardian of a participant waives, releases, and discharges any and all claims from death, personal injury, or property damage which they may have or which may hereafter occur as a result of participation in said event. This release is intended to discharge the FossilFest committee, its offices, employees, or agents, as well as tournament sponsor from liability, even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons or entities mentioned prior. It is understood that some recreational activities involve an element of risk or danger of accidents, and knowing those risks, participants assume responsibility for those risks. It is further understood and agreed that this waiver, release, and assumption of rest is to be binding on any heirs and assignees. Parental consent is required if participants are under the age of 18. Consent to treat is an option given to all participants in the event it is necessary. It is understood that FossilFest provides no medical insurance for such treatment, and the cost thereof will be at the participant's expense. If a person's physician is requested, every effort will be made to contact such physician. However, the location of the activity or nature of the illness or injury may require the use of medical personnel.
